Market Notice

17th May, 2022

Resumption of Public Brokerage Services for Individual Investors

Further to our Market Notice of 3rd February, 2022, advising of the discontinuation of brokerage services to the general public, the Central Bank, considering market feedback, has decided to continue to accept applications for domestic Government securities from new and existing individual investors until further notice.

As a result, individual investors may continue to submit applications directly to the Central Bank to purchase and sell securities.
