United Nations Security Council Sanctions Update for Yemen and ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida

Pursuant to Section 3A of the International Obligations (Economic & Ancillary Measures) Amendment Act, 2019, supervised financial institutions ("SFIs") and the general public are hereby informed that the United Nations Security Council ("UN Security Council") has updated its Sanctions List as follows:

Extension of UN Security Council Sanctions on Yemen (14 November 2023)

Amendment of Five Entries to the ISIL \(Da'esh\) and Al-Qaida Sanctions List (14 November 2023)

Request for Information

The Central Bank hereby requires that all SFIs licensed in The Bahamas, as a matter of high priority, review their client records to determine whether or not they hold funds, other financial assets or economic resources which are either owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the persons or entities listed on the Sanctions List or any person acting on their behalf or at their discretion, and report both positive and negative findings to the Central Bank.

Any positive findings ("hits") are required to be reported to the Financial Intelligence Unit and the Attorney General.
