

CURRENCY (NOTES AND COINS) ORDER, 2013

Arrangement of Paragraphs

---

Paragraph

1.	Citation.....	2
2.	Interpretation.....	2
3.	Denominations, forms and designs of currency notes.....	2
4.	Denominations, forms, designs, etc., of coins.....	2
5.	Revocation of Sub. Leg., Vol. VI, Ch. 351-3.....	2

FIRST SCHEDULE	3
-----------------------	----------

SECOND SCHEDULE	21
------------------------	-----------

---

CENTRAL BANK OF THE BAHAMAS ACT
(CHAPTER 351)

CURRENCY (NOTES AND COINS) ORDER, 2013

The Minister, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 13 of the Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, after consultation with the Bank, hereby makes the following Order —

1. Citation.

This Order may be cited as the Currency (Notes and Coins) Order, 2013.

2. Interpretation.

In this Order —

“Act” means the Central Bank of The Bahamas Act (Ch.351);

“Bank” means the Central Bank of The Bahamas established under section 3 of the Act;

“numismatic coins” mean proof coins which are issued in packaged sets of nine coins with one of each denomination and proof coins issued singularly;

“regular issue coins” mean coins for general circulation and include brilliant uncirculated specimens of such coins which are issued in packaged sets of nine coins with one of each denomination and brilliant uncirculated specimens of such coins issued singularly.

3. Denominations, forms and designs of currency notes.

The denominations, forms and designs of the currency notes issued by the Bank, and the devices to be borne by such notes, shall be as specified in the First Schedule.

4. Denominations, forms, designs, etc., of coins.

The denominations, forms, designs, standard weight and composition of, and the tolerance and variation permitted in respect of the coins issued by the Bank, and the devices to be borne by such coins, shall be as specified in the Second Schedule.

5. Revocation of Sub. Leg., Vol. VI, Ch. 351-3.

The Currency (Notes and Coins) Order is hereby revoked.

FIRST SCHEDULE

(paragraph 3)

CURRENCY NOTES
DENOMINATIONS, FORMS, DESIGNS AND DEVICES

1. One Hundred Dollars.

- (a) Blue in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Minister for Finance and a Commissioner of Currency together with the words, "The Currency Note Act 1965 THE BAHAMAS GOVERNMENT These notes are legal tender for the payment of any amount ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of deep sea fishing showing a marlin jumping and a fishing boat in the background. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (b) Blue in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Chairman and the Manager of The Bahamas Monetary Authority together with the words "Bahamas Monetary Authority established by The Bahamas Government 1968 These notes are legal tender under The Bahamas Monetary Authority Act 1968 for the payment of any amount ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of deep sea fishing showing a marlin jumping and a fishing boat in the background. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (c) Blue in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS." A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of deep sea fishing showing a marlin jumping and a fishing boat in the background. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.

- (d) Blue, violet and purple on the front and blue on the reverse. The note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, a lugger vessel and the Bank's logo on the left. The back carries a picture of a blue marlin jumping in the ocean. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $100 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a sand-dollar sea-urchin which has been adopted as the logo of The Central Bank.
- (e) Blue, violet and carmine on the front; Blue and carmine on the reverse with silver highlights in the central picture. The note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, a lugger vessel and the Bank's logo on the left. The back carries a picture of a blue marlin jumping in the ocean. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $100 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a sand-dollar sea-urchin which has been adopted as the logo of The Central Bank.
- (f) Purple, blue, green, and mauve in colour, the note measures 156 mm long and 67 mm wide bearing on the front an elliptical border design surrounding a portrait of Queen Elizabeth II, along with the series, a signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act 2000 for the payment of any amount One Hundred Dollars." A watermark of Queen Elizabeth II and the numeral 100 appears on the left and a map of The Bahamas in the centre. The back carries a picture of a blue marlin jumping out of the water. The picture is surrounded by various images which include on the left, a rainbow arc flanked by the numeral $100 and the words "One Hundred Dollars", above, the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas", and on the bottom centre, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas.

2. Fifty Dollars.

- (a) Light brown in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Minister for Finance and a Commissioner of Currency together with the words, "The Currency Note Act 1965 THE BAHAMAS GOVERNMENT These notes are legal tender for the payment of any amount FIFTY DOLLARS". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of a produce market with a man carrying bananas on the left against a background of sloops in the harbour. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (b) Light brown in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Chairman and the Manager of The Bahamas Monetary Authority together with the words "Bahamas Monetary Authority established by The Bahamas Government 1968 These notes are legal tender under The Bahamas Monetary Authority Act 1968 for the payment of any amount FIFTY DOLLARS". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of a produce market with a man carrying bananas on the left against a background of sloops in the harbour. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (c) Light brown in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount FIFTY DOLLARS". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of a produce market with a man carrying bananas on the left against a background of sloops in the harbour. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of

The Bahamas and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.

- (d) Brown, amber and lilac on the front and brown on the reverse. The note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount FIFTY DOLLARS". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, the water storage tower situated on Bennet's Hill, Nassau, and the Bank's logo on the left. The back carries a picture of Bahamian Artist Eddie Minnis' impression of The Central Bank of The Bahamas. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $50 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a blue marlin.
- (e) Brown, orange, sea-green and lilac on the front, and brown, orange and silver on the reverse. The note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount FIFTY DOLLARS." A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, the water storage tower situated on Bennet's Hill, Nassau, and the Bank's logo on the left. The back carries a picture of Bahamian Artist Eddie Minnis' impression of The Central Bank of The Bahamas. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $50 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a blue marlin.
- (f) Brown, burgundy and leaf-green in colour, with silver highlights in the central picture and right panel on the reverse. The note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act for the payment of any amount FIFTY DOLLARS". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, the water storage tower situated on Bennet's Hill, Nassau, and the Bank's logo on the left. The back carries a picture of Bahamian Artist Eddie Minnis' impression of The Central Bank of The Bahamas. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $50 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a blue marlin.

- (g) Brown, burgundy and leaf-green in colour, with silver highlights in the central picture and right panel on the reverse. The note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of Sir Roland T. Symonette, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act for the payment of any amount FIFTY DOLLARS." A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, the water storage tower situated on Bennet's Hill, Nassau, and the Bank's logo on the left. The back carries a picture of Bahamian Artist Eddie Minnis' impression of The Central Bank of The Bahamas. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $50 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a blue marlin.
- (h) Orange, brown, and green in colour, the note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an elliptical border design surrounding a portrait of Sir Roland T. Symonette, along with the series, a signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act 2000 for the payment of any amount Fifty Dollars." A watermark of Sir Roland T. Symonette and the numeral 50 appear on the left and a map of The Bahamas in the centre. The back carries a picture depicting the Central Bank's building in Nassau. The picture is surrounded by various images, which include, on the left, a rainbow-arc flanked by the numeral $50 and the words "Fifty Dollars", above the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas", and on the bottom centre, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas.

3. Twenty Dollars.

- (a) Ash brown in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Minister for Finance and a Commissioner of Currency together with the words, "The Currency Note Act 1965 THE BAHAMAS GOVERNMENT These notes are legal tender for the payment of any amount TWENTY DOLLARS". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of a horse drawn surrey with the sea forming a background. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.

- (b) Ash brown in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Chairman and the Manager of The Bahamas Monetary Authority together with the words "Bahamas Monetary Authority established by The Bahamas Government 1968 These notes are legal tender under The Bahamas Monetary Authority Act 1968, for the payment of any amount TWENTY DOLLARS". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of a horse drawn surrey with the sea forming a background. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (c) Ash brown in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount "TWENTY DOLLARS". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of a horse drawn surrey with the sea forming a background. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (d) Red and sepia on the front and sepia on the reverse. The note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount TWENTY DOLLARS". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, a horse drawn surrey, and the Bank's logo on the left. The back carries a picture of an aerial view of Nassau's Harbour showing ocean-going liners. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $20 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a ship's anchor.

- (e) Red and very dark purple on the front and very dark purple on the reverse. The note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount TWENTY DOLLARS". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, a horse drawn surrey, and the Bank's logo on the left. The back carries a picture of an aerial view of Nassau's Harbour showing ocean-going liners. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $20 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a ship's anchor.
- (f) Dark grey, red and olive green on the front and dark grey and red on the reverse. The note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of Sir Milo B. Butler, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount TWENTY DOLLARS". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outlined map of The Bahamas in the centre, a horse drawn surrey, the Bank's logo on the left and the vertical serial number on the front right hand side. The back carries the use of metallic silver coloured ink, a picture of an aerial view of Nassau's Harbour showing ocean-going liners. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $20 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a ship's anchor.
- (g) Dark grey, red and olive green on the front; dark grey and red, with sea green and silver highlights in the central picture and right panel, respectively, on the reverse. The note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of Sir Milo B. Butler, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act for the payment of any amount TWENTY DOLLARS". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon and a gold foil feature appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, a horse drawn surrey, the Bank's logo on the left, a vertical serial number on the front right hand side and a horizontal serial number on the front left hand side, which grows in size from left to right. The back carries a picture of an aerial view of Nassau's Harbour showing ocean-going liners. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $20, on the bottom left, a picture of a ship's anchor, and on the bottom centre, the words "TWENTY DOLLARS" in two alternating colours.

- (h) Charcoal, red, and green in colour, the note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an elliptical border design surrounding a portrait of Sir Milo B. Butler, along with the series, a signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act 2000 for the payment of any amount Twenty Dollars". A watermark of Sir Milo B. Butler and the numeral 20 appear on the left and a map of The Bahamas in the centre. The back carries a picture depicting Nassau Harbour, New Providence. The picture is surrounded by various images, which include, on the left, a rainbow-arc flanked by the numeral $20 and the words "Twenty Dollars", above the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas", and on the bottom centre, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas.

4. Ten Dollars.

- (a) Grey in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Minister for Finance and a Commissioner of Currency together with the words, "The Currency Note Act 1965 THE BAHAMAS GOVERNMENT These notes are legal tender for the payment of any amount TEN DOLLARS". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of flamingoes standing in a pond against a background of Hibiscus shrubs. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.

- (b) Grey in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Chairman and the Manager of The Bahamas Monetary Authority together with the words “Bahamas Monetary Authority established by The Bahamas Government 1968 These notes are legal tender under The Bahamas Monetary Authority Act 1968 for the payment of any amount TEN DOLLARS”. A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of flamingoes standing in a pond against a background of Hibiscus shrubs. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (c) Grey in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words “The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount TEN DOLLARS”. A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of flamingoes standing in a pond against a background of Hibiscus shrubs. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (d) Turquoise in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words “The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount TEN DOLLARS”. A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, flamingoes and the Bank’s logo on the left. The back carries a picture of the Hope Town Lighthouse and settlement, Abaco. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank’s logo, the numeral $10 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a hawksbill turtle.
- (e) Sea-green, leaf-green and deep pink in colour, with silver highlights in the central picture and right panel on the reverse. The note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of

The Bahamas together with the words “The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act for the payment of any amount TEN DOLLARS”. A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, flamingoes and the Bank’s logo on the left. The back carries a picture of the Hope Town Lighthouse and settlement, Abaco. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank’s logo, the numeral $10 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a hawksbill turtle.

- (f) Sea-green, leaf-green and deep pink in colour, with silver highlights in the central picture and right panel on the reverse. The note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of Sir Stafford L. Sands, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words “The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act for the payment of any amount TEN DOLLARS”. A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, flamingoes and the Bank’s logo on the left. The back carries a picture of the Hope Town Lighthouse and settlement, Abaco. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank’s logo, the numeral $10 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a hawksbill turtle.
- (g) Dark blue, dark green and maroon in colour, the note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an elliptical border design surrounding a portrait of Queen Elizabeth II, along with the series, a signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words “The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act 2000 for the payment of any amount Ten Dollars”. A watermark of Queen Elizabeth II and the numeral 10 appears on the left and a map of The Bahamas in the centre. The back carries a picture depicting Hope Town, Abaco. The picture is surrounded by various images, which include, on the left, a rainbow-arc flanked by the numeral $10 and the words “Ten Dollars”, above, the words “The Central Bank of The Bahamas”, and on the bottom centre, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas.
- (h) Dark blue, dark green and maroon in colour, the note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an elliptical border design surrounding a portrait of Sir Stafford Sands, along with the series, a signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words “The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act 2000 for the payment of any amount Ten Dollars”. A watermark of Sir Stafford Sands and the numeral 10 appears on the left and a map of The Bahamas in the centre. The back carries a picture depicting Hope Town, Abaco. The picture is surrounded by various images, which include, on the left, a rainbow-arc flanked by the numeral $10 and the words “Ten Dollars”, above, the words “The Central Bank of The Bahamas”, and on the bottom centre, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas.

5. Five Dollars.

- (a) Green in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Minister for Finance and a Commissioner of Currency together with the words, “The Currency Note Act 1965 THE BAHAMAS GOVERNMENT These notes are legal tender for the payment of any amount FIVE DOLLARS”. A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back bears a picture of Government House with Columbus’ Statue in the foreground. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (b) Brownish-red in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Chairman and the Manager of The Bahamas Monetary Authority together with the words “Bahamas Monetary Authority established by The Bahamas Government 1968 These notes are legal tender under The Bahamas Monetary Authority Act 1968 for the payment of any amount FIVE DOLLARS”. A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back bears a picture of Government House with Columbus’ Statue in the foreground. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left, a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (c) Brownish-red in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words “The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount FIVE DOLLARS". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back bears a picture of Government House with Columbus' Statue in the foreground. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.

- (d) Orange in colour and measuring 156 mm long and 67 mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount FIVE DOLLARS". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, the Bank's logo and the statue of Columbus on the left. The back carries a picture of a Junkanoo group. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $5 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a Junkanoo face.
- (e) Dark brown, mid-brown and rust red on the front and back. The note measures 156 mm long and 67 mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of Sir Cecil Wallace-Whitfield, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount FIVE DOLLARS". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, the Bank's logo and a statue of Columbus on the left, and the vertical serial number on the front right hand side. On the back of the note on the right hand side, the "sand dollar", the value numeral and the adjacent panel have been printed in silver metallic ink. The picture of a Junkanoo group on the back is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $5 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a Junkanoo face.
- (f) Dark Brown, mid-brown and rust red in colour, with blue and silver highlights in the central picture and right panel, respectively, on the reverse. The note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of Sir Cecil Wallace-Whitfield, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under

The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act for the payment of any amount FIVE DOLLARS”. A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, the Bank’s logo and a statue of Columbus on the left, a vertical serial number on the front right hand side, and a horizontal serial number on the front left hand side, which grows in size from left to right. The back carries a picture of a Junkanoo group, in which the faces of the people in the audience have been made brown. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank’s logo, the numeral $5, on the bottom left, a picture of a Junkanoo face, and on the bottom centre, the words “FIVE DOLLARS” in two alternating colours.

- (g) Orange, brown, and blue in colour, the note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an elliptical border design surrounding a portrait of Sir Cecil Wallace-Whitfield, along with the series, a signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words “The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act 2000 for the payment of any amount FIVE DOLLARS”. A watermark of Sir Cecil Wallace-Whitfield and the numeral 5 appear on the left and a map of The Bahamas in the centre. The back carries a picture depicting junkanooers. The picture is surrounded by various images, which include rainbow-arcs flanked by the numeral $5 and the words “FIVE DOLLARS” above, the words “The Central Bank of The Bahamas”, and on the bottom centre, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas.

6. Three Dollars.

- (a) Red in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Minister for Finance and a Commissioner of Currency together with the words, “The Currency Note Act 1965 THE BAHAMAS GOVERNMENT These notes are legal tender for the payment of any amount THREE DOLLARS”. A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of holiday makers on Paradise Beach. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (b) Pinkish-red in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Chairman and the Manager of The Bahamas Monetary Authority together with the words "Bahamas Monetary Authority established by The Bahamas Government 1968 These notes are legal tender under The Bahamas Monetary Authority Act 1968 for the payment of any amount THREE DOLLARS". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of holiday makers on Paradise Beach. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.

- (c) Pinkish-red in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount THREE DOLLARS". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of holiday makers on Paradise Beach. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (d) Carmine in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount THREE DOLLARS". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, a miniature picture of holiday makers on Paradise Beach and the Bank's logo on the left. The back carries a picture of a Family Island Regatta. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $3 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a Bahamian sloop.

7. One Dollar.

- (a) Bluish-green in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Minister for Finance and a Commissioner of Currency together with the words, "The Currency Note Act 1965 THE BAHAMAS GOVERNMENT These notes are legal tender for the payment of any amount ONE DOLLAR". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of an underwater sea garden. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.

- (b) Bluish-green in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Chairman and the Manager of The Bahamas Monetary Authority together with the words "Bahamas Monetary Authority established by The Bahamas Government 1968 These notes are legal tender under The Bahamas Monetary Authority Act 1968 for the payment of any amount ONE DOLLAR". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of an underwater sea garden. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (c) Bluish-green in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount ONE DOLLAR". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture of an underwater sea garden. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (d) Green in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount ONE DOLLAR". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, a picture of a coral reef and the Bank's logo on the left. The back carries a picture depicting the Royal Bahamas Police Force Band. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $1 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a conch shell.
- (e) Dark-green, olive green, and light brown in colour, with blue and silver highlights in the central picture and right panel, respectively on the reverse. The note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide, bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of Sir Lynden O. Pindling, a facsimile signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 2000 for the payment of any amount ONE DOLLAR". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, a picture of a coral reef and the Bank's logo on the left. The back carries a picture depicting the Royal Bahamas Police Force Band. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $1 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a conch shell.

- (f) Dark-green in colour, the note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide, bearing on the front an engraved design surrounding a portrait of Queen Elizabeth II, along with the series 2002 and a facsimile signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act 2000 for the payment of any amount One Dollar". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, a picture of a coral reef and the Bank's logo on the left. The back carries a picture depicting the Royal Bahamas Police Force Band. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $1 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a conch shell.
- (g) Dark green, mint green, and brown in colour, the note measures 156 mm long and 67 mm wide, bearing on the front an elliptical border design surrounding a portrait of Sir Lynden O. Pindling, along with the series, a signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act 2000 for the payment of any amount One Dollar." A watermark of Sir Lynden O. Pindling and the numeral 1 appears on the left and a map of The Bahamas in the centre. The back carries a picture of the Royal Bahamas Police Force Band. The picture is surrounded by various images which include on the left, a partial rainbow arc flanked by the numeral $1 and the words "One Dollar", above the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas", on the right, the Yellow Elder flower, and on the bottom centre, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas.

8. Commemorative Dollar.

Multi-coloured and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide, bearing on the front an engraved design of Christopher Columbus, a facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount ONE DOLLAR." The Quincentennial Logo of The Bahamas appears on the left of the note, the Central Bank's logo to the left of centre and a Compass Rose on the upper right side. Along the bottom of the note is an engraved border consisting of conch shells. In the upper left and lower right corners are the numeral $1. On the back of the note to the left is a triptych of The Bahamas Parrot, The Bahamas Iguana and the Flamingo. Above this depiction is a Compass Rose. To the right of centre is a map of The Bahamas. In the upper right corner is a depiction of the Nina, Pinta, and Santa Maria and in the lower right corner is the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas. In the lower left and upper right corners are the numeral $1.

9. Fifty Cents.

- (a) Wine-red in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Minister for Finance and a Commissioner of Currency together with the words, "The Currency Note Act 1965 THE BAHAMAS GOVERNMENT These notes are legal tender for the payment of any amount FIFTY CENTS". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture showing a straw market with straw workers. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (b) Wine-red in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimiles of the signatures of the Chairman and the Manager of The Bahamas Monetary Authority together with the words "Bahamas Monetary Authority established by The Bahamas Government 1968 These notes are legal tender under The Bahamas Monetary Authority Act 1968 for the payment of any amount FIFTY CENTS". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture showing a straw market with straw workers. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.

- (c) Wine-red in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount FIFTY CENTS". A watermark of a conch shell appears on the right. The back carries a picture showing a straw market with straw workers. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes on the right the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas and on the left a spray of Yellow Elder flowers and leaves.
- (d) Slate grey in colour and measuring 156mm long and 67mm wide bearing on the front an engraved border design surrounding a portrait of the Queen, facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 1974 for the payment of any amount FIFTY CENTS". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, basketwork from the straw market, Freeport and the Bank's logo on the left. The back carries a picture depicting Sister Sarah in the Nassau Market. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $1/2 and, on the bottom left a picture of a hand of bananas.
- (e) Moss-green, charcoal-grey, and dark turquoise in colour, with blue and silver highlights in the central picture and right panel, respectively, on the reverse. The note measures 156mm long and 67mm wide, bearing on the front an engraved design surrounding a portrait of Queen Elizabeth II, a facsimile of the signature of the Governor of The Central Bank of The Bahamas together with the words "The Central Bank of The Bahamas. These notes are legal tender under The Central Bank of The Bahamas Act, 2000 for the payment of any amount FIFTY CENTS". A watermark of a Spanish Galleon appears on the right, an outline map of The Bahamas in the centre, basketwork from the straw market, Freeport and the Bank's logo on the left. The back carries a picture depicting Sister Sarah in the Nassau Market. The picture is surrounded by a border which includes, on the right, the coat-of-arms of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas, the Bank's logo, the numeral $1/2 and, on the bottom left, a picture of a hand of bananas.

SECOND SCHEDULE

(paragraph 4)

CURRENCY NOTES AND COINS

Denomination	Standard Weight in grams unless otherwise stated	Metallic Composition	Tolerance and Variation	Forms, Designs and Devices
Five Dollars	650 grains	925 parts silver 75 parts copper	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 8,000 pieces: millesimal fineness 4 per cent	A round coin measuring 1.772 inches in diameter with a milled edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands and the words and figures, "Five Dollars 1966".
Five Dollars	650 grains	925 parts silver 75 parts copper	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 8,000 pieces: millesimal fineness 4 per cent	A round coin measuring 1.772 inches in diameter with a milled edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, the coat-of-arms of the Bahama Islands together with the words, "Five Dollars" and the date of the year.
5 Dollars: Numismatic Coins	42.12	925 silver 75 copper	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 8,000 pieces: millesimal fineness 4 per cent	A round coin measuring 45.01mm in diameter, 3.20 mm in thickness with a milled edge, bearing on the obverse the coat-of-arms of The Bahamas together with the words "Commonwealth of The Bahamas" which forms a crown around the coat-of-arms. Below the coat-of-arms is the date. On the reverse is the flag of The Bahamas together with the words "Five Dollars".
Regular Issue Coins	36.40	75 per cent copper, 25 per cent nickel
Two Dollars	460 grains	925 parts silver	Weight not exceeding 1	A round coin measuring 1.575 inches in diameter with a milled edge, bearing on

CURRENCY (NOTES AND COINS) ORDER, 2013

		75 parts copper	piece in 2,500 pieces: millesimal fineness 4 per cent	the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, two flamingoes and the words and figures, "Two Dollars 1966".
Two Dollars	460 grains	925 parts silver 75 parts copper	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 2,500 pieces: millesimal fineness 4 per cent	A round coin measuring 1.575 inches in diameter with a milled edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, two flamingoes together with the words "Two Dollars" and the date of the year.
2 Dollars: Numismatic Coins	29.81	925 silver 75 copper	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 2,500 pieces: millesimal fineness 4 per cent	A round coin measuring 40.01mm in diameter, 2.84 mm in thickness with a milled edge, bearing on the obverse the coat-of-arms of The Bahamas together with the words "Commonwealth of The Bahamas" which forms a crown around the coat-of-arms. Below the coat-of-arms is the date. On the reverse are two flamingoes together with the words "Two Dollars".
Regular Issue Coins	25.77	75 per cent copper, 25 per cent nickel
One Dollar	280 grains	800 parts silver 200 parts copper	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 1,000 pieces: millesimal fineness 5 per cent	A round coin measuring 1.420 inches in diameter with a milled edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, a conch shell and the words and figures, "One Dollar 1966".
One Dollar	280 grains	800 parts silver 200 parts copper	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 1,000 pieces: millesimal fineness 5 per cent	A round coin measuring 1.420 inches in diameter with a milled edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, a conch shell together with the words, "One Dollar" and the date of the year.
1 Dollar: Numismatic Coins	18.14	800 silver, 200 copper	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 1,000	A round coin measuring 34.54mm in diameter, 2.44 mm in thickness with a milled edge, bearing on the obverse the

Regular Issue Coins	16.01	75 per cent copper, 25 per cent nickel	pieces: millesimal fineness 5 per cent	coat-of-arms of The Bahamas together with the words "Commonwealth of The Bahamas" which forms a crown around the coat-of-arms. Below the coat-of-arms is the date. On the reverse is a conch shell together with the words "One Dollar".
Fifty Cents	160 grains	800 parts silver 200 parts copper	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 500 pieces: millesimal fineness 5 per cent	A round coin measuring 1.142 inches in diameter with a milled edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, a jumping blue marlin and the words and figures, "Fifty Cents 1966".
Fifty Cents	160 grains	800 parts silver 200 parts copper	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 500 pieces: millesimal fineness 5 per cent	A round coin measuring 1.142 inches in diameter with a milled edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, a jumping blue marlin together with the words, "Fifty Cents" and the date of the year.
50 Cents: Numismatic Coins	10.37	800 silver, 200 copper	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 500 pieces: millesimal fineness 5 per cent	A round coin measuring 29.01mm in diameter, 1.98 mm in thickness with a milled edge, bearing on the obverse the coat-of-arms of The Bahamas together with the words "Commonwealth of The Bahamas" which forms a crown around the coat-of-arms. Below the coat-of-arms is the date. On the reverse is a jumping blue marlin together with the words "Fifty Cents".
Regular Issue Coins	9.10	75 per cent copper, 25 per cent nickel
Twenty-five Cents	105 grains	Pure Nickel	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 100 pieces	A round coin measuring .955 inches in diameter with a milled edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, a native sloop and the words and figures, "Twenty-Five Cents 1966".
Twenty-five Cents	105 grains	Pure Nickel	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in	A round coin measuring .955 inches in diameter with a milled edge, bearing on

CURRENCY (NOTES AND COINS) ORDER, 2013

			100 pieces	the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, a native sloop together with the words "Twenty-Five Cents" and the date of the year.
25 Cents: Numismatic Coins	6.80	100 per cent nickel	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 100 pieces	A round coin measuring 24.26 mm in diameter, 2.03 mm in thickness with a milled edge, bearing on the obverse the coat-of-arms of The Bahamas together with the words "Commonwealth of The Bahamas" which forms a crown around the coat-of-arms. Below the coat-of-arms is the date. On the reverse is a native sloop together with the words "Twenty-Five Cents".
Regular Issue Coins	6.80	100 per cent nickel
25 Cents: Numismatic Coins	5.67	75 per cent copper, 25 per cent nickel	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 100 pieces	A round coin measuring 24.26 mm in diameter, 2.05 mm in thickness with a milled edge, bearing on the obverse the coat-of-arms of The Bahamas together with the words "Commonwealth of The Bahamas" which forms a crown around the coat-of-arms. Below the coat-of-arms is the date. On the reverse is a native sloop together with the words "Twenty-Five Cents".
Regular Issue Coins	5.67	75 per cent copper, 25 per cent nickel
Twenty-Five Cents: Numismatic and Regular Issue Coins	5.67	Multiply nickel plated on steel	+/-0.17	A round coin measuring 24.26 mm in diameter, 1.70 mm in thickness with a milled edge, bearing on the obverse the coat-of-arms of The Bahamas together with the words "Commonwealth of The Bahamas" which forms a crown around the coat-of-arms. Below the coat-of-arms is the date. On the reverse is a native sloop at sail near an island, together with the text "25 CENTS".
Fifteen Cents	100 grains	75% copper 25% nickel	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 70 pieces: millesimal fineness 1 per cent	A square coin measuring .850 inches across the flats with a plain edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, a hibiscus and the words and figures,

CURRENCY (NOTES AND COINS) ORDER, 2013

				"Fifteen Cents 1966".
Fifteen Cents	100 grains	75% copper 25% nickel	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 70 pieces: millesimal fineness 1 per cent	A square coin measuring .850 inches across the flats with a plain edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, a hibiscus together with the words, "Fifteen Cents" and the date of the year.
15 Cents: Numismatic Coins	6.48	75 per cent copper, 25 per cent nickel	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 70 pieces: millesimal fineness 1 per cent	A square coin measuring 21.59 mm across the flats, 2.06 mm in thickness with a smooth edge, bearing on the obverse the coat-of-arms of The Bahamas together with the words "Commonwealth of The Bahamas" which forms a crown around the coat-of-arms. Below the coat-of-arms is the date. On the reverse is a hibiscus together with the words "Fifteen Cents".
Regular Issue Coins	6.48
Ten Cents	85 grains	75 per cent copper, 25 per cent nickel	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 60 pieces: millesimal fineness 1 per cent	A scalloped coin measuring .925 inches in outside diameter with a plain edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, two bonefishes and the words and figures, "Ten Cents 1966".
Ten Cents	85 grains	75 per cent copper, 25 per cent nickel	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 60 pieces: millesimal fineness 1 per cent	A scalloped coin measuring .925 inches in outside diameter with a plain edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, two bonefishes together with the words, "Ten Cents" and the date of the year.
10 Cents: Numismatic Coins	5.51	75 per cent copper, 25 per cent nickel	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 60 pieces: millesimal fineness 1 per cent	A scalloped coin measuring 23.50 mm in outside diameter, 1.80 mm in thickness with a smooth edge, bearing on the obverse the coat-of-arms of The Bahamas together with the words "Commonwealth of The Bahamas" which forms a crown around the coat-of-arms. Below the coat-of-arms is the date. On the reverse are two bonefishes together with the words "Ten
Regular Issue Coins	5.51

CURRENCY (NOTES AND COINS) ORDER, 2013

				Cents”.
10 Cents: Numismatic Coins Regular Issue Coins	5.51	Multiply nickel plated on steel	+/-0.20	A scalloped coin measuring 23.50 mm in diameter, 1.80 mm in thickness with a smooth edge, bearing on the obverse the coat-of-arms of The Bahamas together with the words “Commonwealth of The Bahamas” which forms a crown around the coat-of-arms. Below the coat-of-arms is the date. On the reverse are two bonefishes swimming, together with the text “10 CENTS”.
Five Cents	60 grains	75 % copper 25 % nickel	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 40 pieces: millesimal fineness 1 per cent	A round coin measuring .827 inches in diameter, with a plain edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, “Elizabeth II Bahama Islands” and on the reverse, a pineapple and the words and figures, “Five Cents 1966”.
Five Cents	60 grains	75 % copper 25 % nickel	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 40 pieces: millesimal fineness 1 per cent	A round coin measuring .827 inches in diameter, with a plain edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, “Elizabeth II Bahama Islands” and on the reverse, a pineapple together with the words, “Five Cents” and the date of the year.
5 Cents: Numismatic Coins  Regular Issue Coins	3.89  3.89	75% copper 25% nickel	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 40 pieces: millesimal fineness 1 per cent	A round coin measuring 21.01 mm in diameter, 1.52 mm in thickness with a smooth edge, bearing on the obverse the coat-of-arms of The Bahamas together with the words “Commonwealth of The Bahamas” which forms a crown around the coat-of-arms. Below the coat-of-arms is the date. On the reverse is a pineapple together with the words “Five Cents”.

CURRENCY (NOTES AND COINS) ORDER, 2013

One Cent	65 grains	79% copper 20% zinc 1% nickel	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 40 pieces	A round coin measuring .886 inches in diameter with a plain edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, a starfish and the words and figures, One Cent 1966".
One Cent	65 grains	79% copper 20% zinc 1% nickel	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 40 pieces	A round coin measuring .886 inches in diameter with a plain edge, bearing on the obverse an Arnold Machin effigy of Her Majesty the Queen facing right surrounded by the words, "Elizabeth II Bahama Islands" and on the reverse, a starfish together with the words, "One Cent" and the date of the year.
1 Cent: Numismatic Coins	3.11	79 per cent copper 20 per cent zinc	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 40 pieces	A round coin measuring 19.05 mm in diameter, 1.42 mm in thickness with a smooth edge, bearing on the obverse the coat-of-arms of The Bahamas together with the words "Commonwealth of The Bahamas" which forms a crown around the coat-of-arms. Below the coat-of-arms is the date. On the reverse is a starfish together with the words "One Cent".
Regular Issue Coins	3.11	1 per cent nickel
1 Cent: Numismatic Coins	2.50	97.5 zinc, 2.5 per cent copper plated to a zinc core	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 40 pieces	A round coin measuring 19.05 mm in diameter, 1.58 mm in thickness with a smooth edge, the obverse features the coat-of-arms of The Bahamas together with the inscription "Commonwealth of The Bahamas" which forms a crown around the coat-of-arms. Below the coat-of-arms is the date. The reverse depicts a starfish together with the words "1 Cent".
Regular Issue Coins
1 Cent: Numismatic Coins	1.70	97.5 per cent copper, 2.5 per cent zinc	Weight not exceeding 1 piece in 40 pieces	A round coin measuring 17 mm in diameter, 1.30 mm in thickness with a smooth edge, bearing on the obverse the coat-of-arms of The Bahamas together with the words "Commonwealth of The Bahamas" which forms a crown around the coat-of-arms. Below the coat-of-arms is the date. On the reverse are images of a starfish together with the words "1 Cent".
Regular Issue Coins

One Cent: Numismatic & Regular Issue Coins	1.70	Copper plated steel	Weight: $\pm 0.06$  Diameter: $\pm 0.13\text{mm}$  Thickness: $\pm 0.15\text{mm}$	A round coin measuring 17 mm in diameter, 1.30 mm in thickness with a smooth edge, bearing on the obverse the coat-of-arms of The Bahamas together with the words "Commonwealth of The Bahamas" which forms a crown around the coat-of-arms. Below the coat-of-arms is the date. On the reverse are images of a starfish together with the words "1 CENT".
---	------	------------------------	--	--

Made this                      day of                      , 2013.

MINISTER OF FINANCE