

Public Notice

Resumption of Operations

Given the all clear issued by The Bahamas Department of Meteorology, since the passage of Tropical Storm Imelda, the Central Bank of The Bahamas advises the public that normal operations will resume effective 30 September 2025. All services will be available during regular business hours. Members of the public may continue to contact the appropriate department(s) as outlined on the contact page of our website.

29 September 2025 ■